

Love The Outdoors.

We have no hesitation in recommending Original Decking for any decking project. Alex was extremely prompt in doing the quote and right from the start we knew he was going to be the one to trust with the building of our deck. As well as being very professional he has a great sense of humour that really appealed to us. We also want to thank Chris, Rob and Chris, for the quality of their building skills and their great personal skills in relating to the client. Alex was very willing to make additions to the original design as the work progressed, and nothing was too hard. This resulted in "a deck to die for". Thank you Alex for a job well done!
